

Table of Contents

Preface..... ix

Acknowledgments..... xiii

Introduction..... 1

Chapter 1: Recognizing and Addressing Financial Needs. . 3

- Who has problems? 3
 - The Consumption Lifestyle 3
 - Four Troubling Habits. 3
 - Learned Behaviors 4
 - Money Cycles 5
- Creating a Program for Your Credit Union 6
 - Examining the Need 6
 - Designing the Right Program 8
 - Implementing a Program 8
- Session Structure and Content. 8
 - Ten Vital Skills to Share. 8
- Setting Goals 8

Chapter 2: Communicating with Members 11

- The Six-Step Model. 11
- Understanding Selective Perception 11
- Processing Information 12
 - Hemispheric Thinking. 12
- Channels of Communication. 13
 - Gender Differences 13
 - Generational Shifts. 13
- Empathy, Congruence, and Respect. 14
- Essential Skills 15
 - Using Brainstorming. 16
- Evaluating Choices 16
 - Making Decisions 17
- Ground Rules for Effective Interaction. 18
- Talking about Money 18
- Family Influences 19
 - The Emotional Landscape 19
 - Parental Modeling. 20
 - Earning and Spending 20
- Group Influences 20

	Race and Culture	20
	■ Inner Influences	21
	■ Sorting Through Money Messages	21
Chapter 3:	Budgets, Spending Plans, & Reducing Debt	23
	■ Key Objectives, Essential Skills	23
	■ The Budget Analysis	24
	■ Developing a Spending Plan	24
	The Role of Savings	28
	■ The Action Plan	29
	■ Addressing Cash Flow	30
	■ Dealing with Debt	31
	Analyzing Debt	32
	Accelerating Debt Reduction	33
	Avoiding Predatory Lenders	33
	■ Measures for Members with Severe Problems	34
	■ Taking Control	34
Chapter 4:	Coping with Creditors and Bankruptcy	35
	■ The Counselor’s Role	35
	Writing Letters	36
	Next Steps	36
	■ The Collection Process	37
	■ The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA)	37
	Unsecured Creditors	38
	■ Judgments	39
	■ Garnishment	40
	Restrictions and Exemptions	40
	■ Vehicle Repossession	41
	■ Foreclosure	42
	■ Advising Members about Bankruptcy	43
	Types of Bankruptcy	43
	Non-Dischargeable Debts	43
	Protecting Credit Union Interests	43
	Bankruptcy and Co-Debtors	44
	■ Debt Consolidation Loans	44
	■ Act Now	45
Chapter 5:	Helping Members in Severe Financial Straits	47
	■ The Counselor’s Role	47
	■ Preventing Eviction	48

Coverage Types	67
Ways to Save	67
■ Other Forms of Insurance	68
■ Weigh Your Options.	68
Chapter 8: Getting and Handling Credit	69
■ The “Cs” of Credit	69
■ Credit Scores	69
Credit Score Components	70
Improving Your Credit Score.	70
■ The Fair Credit Reporting Act	71
■ Using Credit Cards Wisely	71
Comparing Credit Card Issuers	71
Credit Card Tricks and Tactics.	72
■ Building the Asset of “Good” Credit	73
Chapter 9: Money Conflicts and Special Challenges	75
■ Coping with Money Conflicts	75
■ Couples in Conflict.	75
Child-Rearing Differences	76
A Note about Non-Traditional Families	76
■ Divided Families	77
The High Cost of Splitting Up.	77
Advising Members	77
■ Blended Families.	78
■ Self-Employment and Variable Income.	78
Self-Employment Pitfalls	78
■ Examining Variable Income	79
Tip Income.	79
Commission Income.	79
Seasonal Work	80
■ Addictions	80
Predisposing Factors	81
Steps to Addiction	81
Financial Signs of Addiction	81
■ Shopping Addiction	82
■ The Financial Counselor’s Role.	82
Steps to Take	83
Rely on Professionalism.	84
■ Moving beyond Conflict	84

- Understanding Seizure of Household Goods . . . 48
- Recognizing the Need for Immediate Assistance 49
 - Rules for Referrals 49
 - Where to Find Help 50
 - Government Programs 50
- Thinking Creatively 51
- Chapter 6: Managing Taxes and Major Expenses 53
 - Taxes 53
 - Recognizing Impact of Personal Decisions . . 54
 - Filing Income Tax Returns 54
 - Using Refunds Wisely 54
 - Making Good Tax Decisions 55
 - Filing Status 56
 - Managing Withholding 56
 - Deductions, Exemptions, and Credits 56
 - The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) 57
 - Cafeteria Plans and HSAs 57
 - Take Advantage of Retirement Plans 57
 - Managing Housing Costs 58
 - Buy or Rent? 58
 - Shared Living Options 59
 - Reducing Housing-Related Costs 59
 - Controlling Transportation Costs 60
 - Telecommunications Adds Connections 60
 - Making the Right Choice 61
- Chapter 7: Understanding Insurance 63
 - Basic Concepts 63
 - Deciding What to Insure 63
 - Health Insurance 63
 - Cost Factors 64
 - COBRA and "Last Resort" Coverage 64
 - Life Insurance 64
 - Insurance for Homeowners and Renters 65
 - Elements of Homeowners' Coverage 65
 - Cost Factors 66
 - The 80% Requirement 66
 - Flood Insurance 66
 - Vehicle Insurance 67

Chapter 10: Savings and Investments 85

- Splurging Saps Savings 85
- Moving from Saving to Investing 85
 - Deciding Whether to Save or Invest 85
- Key Concepts about Investing 86
 - Rules for Investing 86
 - Getting Started 87
- Meeting Retirement Needs 87
 - Failure to Launch 87
 - Retirement Planning Points 88
 - Explain the “Sustainable Draw” 88
 - Use Tax-Advantaged Savings Plans 89
 - Catching Up on Retirement Savings 90
- Comparing Retirement and Education Savings 90
- College Savings Options 90
- Keeping Order 91

Chapter 11: Measuring Success 93

- Defining Success 93

Glossary 95

Resources 101

Index 103