

Fed Up With Bank Cards?

Carry a New Card

Not all credit cards are created equal. Compare—you'll see that a credit union card carries a lower interest rate without all those "just because we can" fees.

Your Credit Union Thanks You

Make the Switch to a Credit Union Card

Has your bank raised your credit card interest rate? Added a fee for paying your balance each month? Increased the annual or late-payment fee?

Charged you for paying your bill over the phone?

Now is the time to compare your most recent statements and carry the one card that works for you. At the credit union, you get a better card—lower interest rates, low fees, and great member service.
