

Value of a Dollar II: Teaching Your K-8 Child

Brought to you by [Insert CU name here]

Seminar Objectives

Learn:

- Why children in grades K-8 need to learn about money
- What motivates children to learn about money management
- How children learn about money
- How to use goal-setting, budgeting, saving, employment, and investing as teaching tools
- How to use an allowance as a teaching tool

What are your money values?

- What do you believe?

How to talk about family finances with your child

- What information are you willing and able to share?

SAMPLE

Click to view video

The “teachable moment”

- The teachable moment
 - Circumstances
 - Child’s attention span
 - Child’s interest

SAMPLE

How much do teens typically spend?

- A. $2.64 per day
- B. $18.50 per week
- C. $74 per month
- D. $888 per year

